

City of Wilsonville Police

OCTOBER 2023

On a cold, sunny Saturday morning, October 28, the City's Public Works hosted an Emergency Preparedness Fair at the Stein-Boozier Barn. Wilsonville Police were on hand to help man a table and talk with citizens. Quite a few brave souls braved the weather and made this successful.

A ♥felt THANK YOU to the Charbonneau Quilter's Club! These wonderful ladies brought in brand new stuffed animals with custom-quilted blankets. This was a generous donation. The special "cuddlies" will be used to help soften or ease often confusing and scary moments for children where police are called over disturbances in their homes.

Robbie Nashif, Retired

In support of Wilsonville High School's homecoming festivities, Wilsonville Police Officer, Deputy R. Nashif, with School Resource Officer, Deputy Z. Keirsej, joined in their annual football game and celebration. Nashif, the department's Motors Officer, made his entrance onto the Wildcat's field astride his traffic bike.

Nashif retired from the Clackamas County Sheriff's Office 17 days later, after 25 years of service. He made a difference and will be genuinely missed.

We will Miss you
