Wilsonville Public Library News & Events

April is National Poetry Month

April is National Poetry Month, which has become the largest literary event in the world that celebrates poetry's vital place in our culture.

Discover your inner poet by learning about haiku (free online program April 6). Enjoy poems posted daily on the Library's Facebook and Twitter pages. Join us on Fridays for Spine Label Poetry, when we post a photo of a poem created by stacking books. You're invited to post your own Spine Label Poems, or try your hand at a Blackout Poem.

National Library Week April 3-9

National Library Week (April 3 - 9, 2022) is a time to celebrate our nation's libraries, library workers' contributions, and promote library use and support.

We are celebrating by offering $5 fine vouchers during this special week. Stop by one of our service desks to receive your voucher.

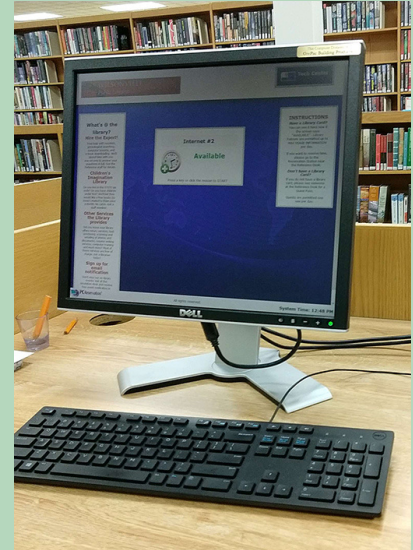

Coming in May: First Friday Film

Watch the latest releases, from blockbusters to independent films, for free on our big screen the first Friday of the month. The films chosen are new, interesting, and difficult to get via Netflix. Snacks are available by donation, or bring your own.
