Choose Kind

The movie version of the R. J. Palacio's book Wonder opens in theaters on November 17th.

The Choose Kind campaign is dedicated to the notion that kids can aspire to be kinder than necessary. There is beauty in recognizing that we each have our own unique qualities. And when we learn to accept those differences in ourselves, as well as in others, we can appreciate each other for the gifts that we are.

Enjoy the books on the back that help children embrace the differences in themselves and in others.

You can't blend in when you were born to stand out.
